RENO CELTIC CELEBRATION AT BARTLEY RANCH REGIONAL PARK OCTOBER 5-7, 2007

A celebration is just not a celebration without great games and entertainment; and this year's Reno Celtic Celebration has a great line-up of both. In addition to our Clan Groups and societies, we have an exciting line-up of entertainment including:

- Concerts Friday and Saturday nights in the Hawkins Amphitheater featuring: The Fenians, Seamus Kennedy, Men of Worth, and Molly's Revenge
- Irish, Highland and Scottish country dancing
- Massed bands processional and ceremony
- Medieval re-enactments provided by the Society for Creative Anachronism
- Celtic storytelling and poetry
- Highland athletic competitions
- Authentic Celtic food vendors
- Kids' Games
- Celtic arts and craft vendors
- A Kilted Mile Run
- Celtic bands
- The City of Sacramento Pipe Band, Reno's own Sierra Highlanders and the Reno & District Firefighters Pipe Band
- Dancers from the Blanchette Irish Dancers, Silver State Scottish Country Dancers, Dunsmuir Scottish Dancers and Caper Duck Dancers

And what's a Celtic celebration without Highland athletics? This year's competition is conducted by the Scottish Athletic Association featuring the caber toss, Breamer stone throw, heavy stone and light toss and much more.

The 17th annual Reno Celtic Celebration will be held October 5th, 6th and 7th at Bartley Ranch Regional Park in Reno, NV. The Reno Celtic Celebration is a cultural, social and entertainment gathering designed to celebrate the cultures and lifestyles of Scotland, Ireland, Isle of Man, Galacia, Cornwall and Wales. Clan tents and information booths will provide a hands-on learning environment for attendees to learn the rich cultural heritage and Celtic origins of their ancestors.

In addition to cultural events, a wide variety of traditional Celtic entertainment will be prevalent throughout the event; pipe bands, Scottish and Irish dancing, Medieval reenactments, traditional Scottish athletics, Friday and Saturday night concerts and, of course, traditional food and drink. We haven't forgotten our young attendees; we will have a designated area for children, with Celtic livestock, dogs and several unique displays to help make the event enjoyable for all.

With our beautiful new location nestled in the Sierra Nevada foothills in South Reno, we are asking that all vendors contribute to the authenticity of the event, by decorating their booths with Celtic flags and banners, and/or wearing traditional clothing and selling as much Celtic themed merchandise as possible. If you are not able to meet these requirements we kindly ask you not to participate in this year's event to help preserve the integrity of the event. In exchange for your help in maintaining the authenticity of the celebration, we will refund the best themed booth's entry fee (up to $300).
